

A Street Called Mercy ©2019, SOCAN
by Jayne Luy, Bradlee, Chris, Tim, and Adam from Teen Challenge Alberta

Intro: D Em G A

D Em G A
I collapsed on a Street called Mercy
D Em G A
Staring at my past, lying there, with my
D Em G A
Soul shattered and empty pockets, living on
D Em G A
False idols and somebody's prayer...

D Em G A X 2 (continue riff)

Conscience blown away in the wind, there was

Only desert for miles around, there were
Charges stacked so high against me, that
Chains held me firm to the ground

Didn't want to hide in the darkness, and Listen to those demons at the door, I Didn't want to stay lost forever, I
Wanted to know that there was more

D Em G A

Bm G D
I found You waiting and You'd take my
A shackles

Bm G D A
So I'm gonna try to run this race, You'll
Bm G D A
Stand for me and face my darkness, so
Em A
I can see a brand new day

D Em G A
D Em G A
Bm Em G A
D Em G A

D Em G A
I was found on a Street called Mercy
Staring at my past, lying there, with my
Soul shattered and empty pockets, living on
False idols and somebody's prayer

I collapsed on a Street called Mercy
Now I open my eyes and see light
You took me home and you showed me kindness
Your love is stronger than my life, yeah
Your love is stronger than my life, yeah